Fort Wayne Dance Collective and Dances of Universal Peace Presents

A Weekend
Retreat with

Narayan Eric
Waldman

with Accompaniment by Zaynab Lezlie Ward on Drums and Dan Liechty on Strings

Narayan Eric Waldman is a Senior Mentor of the Dances of Universal Peace and a member of the Ruhaniat Society, as well as founder of the Oneness Project. His style ranges from the sublime to the outrageous, but is always effective and inspiring. Engaging, humorous, and charismatic, Narayan carries the joy of breathing, singing, and dancing in praise of the Present. He has always woven other experimental practices into Dance sessions and continues to do so. For the last few years he has been immersed in Mantrandala Breathing Meditation, a practice precipitated by the Zeroeth Commandment - "Be still and know that I Am God".

Narayan has been gifted with numerous beloved dances and zikrs (Lord Make Me an Instrument, Here I Am, Om Shanti, Shema Israel, Tey Tey Malkutakh, Amen Alleluia, Ek Ong Kar and Shekinah to name just a few.) He has facilitated many events throughout the US and the world, including New Zealand, Australia, Alaska, Mexico, Guatemala, Italy, Israel, Thailand, and Russia and has helped the Dances spread by conducting Leader Trainings in equally far-flung places and with students ranging from neophytes to mentors.
